

Writing a Story

Write a short story.

1. The story must begin with the following words:

"Not that I'm not pleased to meet you," said Harry quickly, "but is there any particular reason you're here?"

2. Title your story using one of these words: risky, gorgeous, rascal, stupefy, brilliant.

3. Include direct and indirect speech.

4. Describe the events in an entertaining way.

5. Make an unexpected ending.

Write 220–250 words.
